Session IV

Brainstorming small group meetings to comment / specify critical impact pathways from external dimensions on mobility and transport. Each group will receive as working document the critical impact pathways developed by the project with the results of the Delphi survey pertaining to these and asked to specify these with regard to (a) overall logic, (b) intermediate variables, (c) contextual variables or background assumptions, (d) impacts on transport and mobility (type, degree and scope) and (e) areas of intervention (for policy or industry).

It is suggested to break the participants in five groups as follows:

- Group A: Demographic and social developments
David Banister, Michel Houée, Lucia Reisch
- Group B: Institutional arrangements, politics, attitudes
Hendrik Gudmundsson, Marianne Ollivier-Trigalo
- Group C: Science and technology and ICT
Nik Brown, Panayotis Christidis, Stef Weijers
